

R. Blakeney Easterling
Brokerage Associate

R. Blakeney Easterling
associate profile

Blake Easterling joined Lat Purser & Associates (LPA) in 2009 through the merger of Four Corners Land & Investment Real Estate (FCRE) and LPA. His focus is in all areas of site selection and investment property acquisition and disposition throughout South Carolina. Blake has assisted numerous clients throughout the site selection process and aggressively represents his client's interests.

A native of Charleston, South Carolina, Blake has seen first hand the changing dynamic of the coastal real estate market. Prior to merging with LPA, Blake was a founding member of FCRE, a single and multi-family land broker with Colliers International and he worked in land acquisitions and development for a national homebuilder.

Blake is active in the Urban Land Institute and the International Council of Shopping Centers.

Education:

Bachelor of Arts - Historic Preservation and Community Planning,
College of Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina

Master of Arts – City and Regional Planning; emphasis in Real Estate
Development, Clemson, South Carolina

Affiliations:

Licensed Real Estate Salesperson, South Carolina

Urban Land Institute

Charleston Trident Association of Realtors