

Edward G. Oswald
Brokerage Associate

Edward G. Oswald
Brokerage associate profile

Edward Oswald joined Lat Purser & Associates, Inc. Brokerage Group in 2009 as a Brokerage Associate in the Charleston Office. His focus is on the acquisition and disposition of development land as well as the acquisition and disposition of income producing properties. Edward has assisted a diverse list of clients on the sale and/or purchase of raw and developable land and with his background has proven a valuable part of any development team during the entitlement period prior to development. Edward specializes in both path-of-progress and in-fill development opportunities.

Edward came to Lat Purser & Associates, Inc. from Four Corners Land & Investment Real Estate. Prior to his co-founding Four Corners, Edward was a partner of Newkirk Environmental, Inc., a regional environmental firm specializing in wetland delineations, permitting and land entitlements.

Edward is a member of the Charleston Trident Association of Realtors (CTAR), the CTAR Legislative Committee, the Charleston Trident Chamber of Commerce (CTCOC) and the CTCOC's Developers Council. Edward is also an active volunteer at the local chapter of Habitat for Humanity and is a member/volunteer for the Citadel Development Foundation's Class of 1995 Scholarship Committee.

Education:

B.S., Biology, The Citadel, Charleston, South Carolina

M.S., Environmental Science and Coastal Resources Management,
Duke University, Durham, North Carolina

Affiliations:

Licensed Real Estate Broker, South Carolina